What does the Fund invest in?

This fund seeks to generate long term growth in value through the increase in value of its holdings and through the receipt and reinvestment of dividend income from its holdings. It invests primarily in equity securities of North American companies.

The charts below give you a snapshot of the Fund's investments on May 31, 2021. The Fund's investments will change.

How risky is it?

The value of the Fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Value Partners Investments Inc. has rated the volatility of this Fund as medium.

Because this is a new fund, the risk rating is only an estimate by Value Partners Investments Inc. Generally, the rating is based on how much the Fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the Fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the Fund's returns, see "What are the Risks of Investing in this Pool?" section of the Fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the Fund performed?

This section tells you how Series F units of the Fund have performed since inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns.

Who is this Fund for?

Investors who:

- are seeking growth in the value of their investments;
- want exposure to North American equity securities; and
- are comfortable with the potential fluctuations of capital associated with investing in domestic and foreign equity markets.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much tax you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your Fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell Series F units of the Fund. The fees and expenses - including any trailing commissions - can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

You pay no sales charge at the time you invest in Series F units of the Fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns. The Fund's expenses are made up of the management fee, operating expenses and trading costs. The Series F annual management fee is 0.90% of Series F's value. Because this series is new, operating expenses and trading costs are not yet available.

More about the trailing commission

There is no trailing commission paid on Series F units.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the Fund.

Fee	What You Pay
Fee-based account units	Series F units are available only to investors who have fee-based accounts with a representative's firm that have executed an agreement with Value Partners Investments Inc. You will negotiate and pay a fee to your representative's firm for your account with that representative's firm. The fee may be paid by redeeming some of the units you own of the Fund on a quarterly basis.
Short-term trading fee	2% of the value of units you sell or switch within 30 days of buying them. This fee goes to the Fund.
Administrative fee	$30 if your cheque is returned because of insufficient funds.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual funds within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
